FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
November 18, 2019

MARYSVILLE - On Friday, November 15, 2019, Steven Robert Welsh, 54, of Port Huron was arraigned in connection with the robbery at Chemical Bank, 2015 Gratiot Blvd. on Wednesday, November 13, 2019. Welsh was charged with the following: bank robbery, unlawfully driving away with an automobile, and fleeing and eluding. Honorable Judge Monaghan set Welsh's bond at a $250,000 cash surety. A probable cause conference is scheduled for November 26, 2019 at 9 a.m.

Investigators are still looking for accomplice(s). Additional suspect(s) were driving a red or maroon large SUV, possibly a Nissan, around the Marysville McDonald's at the time of the robbery. The vehicle was seen at Advia Credit Union on North River Road and Pine Grove Avenue in Fort Gratiot around 1 p.m. and Chemical Bank at 32nd Street and Lapeer in Port Huron Township at 1:30 p.m. on Wednesday, November 13, 2019.
