MAYOR & COUNCIL/MANAGER COMMENTS:

Deputy Clerk Rene' Stoia reminded everyone of the Presidential Primary election on Tuesday; voting precinct locations, same day registration instructions and stated election inspectors are needed.

Council Member Badley reminded everyone to exercise their rights to vote; thanked Caryn and Dan for speaking tonight and wished them good luck in the running.

Council Member Wessel thanked Randy Fernandez for the diversity meeting pamphlet and wished both candidates Caryn and Dan good luck in the November election.

Council Member Winston congratulated both candidates on their campaigns; said that because he teaches in the social studies department, voting is very important so please get exercise your right to vote. He also mentioned the art teacher helped with black history month and it is nice to see the students' art work on the wall in the council chambers.

Council Member Shirkey echoed Council Member Wessel on the diversity pamphlet; thanked both candidates for speaking tonight and thanked all businesses that attended the Meet the Mayor meeting. It was greatly appreciated by the Marysville Business Council.

Mayor Pro-Tem Hayman commented on the amazing pictures done by local art students we are showcasing in the council chambers; welcomed both Caryn and Dan and wished them luck; thanked Pastor Ben Colmer for his encouragement on working together as a community; congratulated teacher and coach Ed Radske on his induction into the Michigan High School Football Coaches Hall of Fame and informed everyone to wash their hands.

Legal Counsel Al Frances stated that both Dan and Caryn are great candidates and well suited for the seat.

City Manager Randy Fernandez thanked everyone for attending the meeting; March 20th is the State of the County Address at Alexanders; March 20th St. Clair County Community College is hosting National Junior Women's Basketball Tournament; March 23rd council meeting will have SC4 updates and congrats to those on the Big Ten Co-National Championships.

Mayor Pyden echoed council members comments and inquired on Enbridge drilling and pick up of compost bags.
