MAYOR & COUNCIL/MANAGER COMMENTS:

Council Member Barber shared the passing of long-time resident Bob Smith. Bob was a volunteer fireman for many years and instrumental in hockey and baseball; thoughts and prayers go out to his family.

Council Member Wessel hopes everyone is enjoying summer, school starts soon and winter will be upon us. He also mentioned the passing of Bob Smith and that he will be missed at the Marysville Golf Course.

Mayor Pro-Tem Hayman thanked the DPW staff for their quick action on the removal of the large tree that fell in the park.

City Manager Randy Fernandez stated work will begin on Cuttle Rd. next week; asked residents to not park vehicles on their lawns; thanked Marilyn Martin for $1000 dog park donation; thanked Rotary Club for purchasing life rings to be placed along the waterfront; three e-bikes have been purchased for public safety with John Monte sponsoring one and Dave Jozefiak of D&M Tree Service sponsoring two, thank you to all for the generous donations.

Mayor Pyden inquired about the annual float down; a plan for tree trimming on an annual basis; parking on grass during residential gatherings and the accessibility of emergency vehicles to get through; complemented the bicycle emblem on the bike paths and asked for the MDOT business loop signs to be changed to read Gratiot Blvd. Mayor Pyden inquired on activities taking place during Hot Wheels Weekend. Council Member Shirkey will provide a flyer with a schedule of events at the next council meeting.

Rene' Stoia, City Clerk

8:17 p.m. on motion, City Council adjourned.
